

TAA is registered under the Fair Work (Registered Organisations) Act 2009 as an organisation of employers in the hotel industry and its members are represented both at a national level and in every state and territory. TAA is a division of the Australian Hotels Association (AHA).

TAA's success is driven by direct contact with the industry's decision makers and with State and Federal Government members. To further strengthen TAA's position in the industry a representative group of senior accommodation industry leaders comprise TAA's Board ensuring TAA's agenda and advocacy policies reflect the best interests of its members and the accommodation sector.

TAA is focussed on, and committed to, the future development and growth of the accommodation sector within Australia's vibrant tourism industry.
